Canadian Championships in Rhythmic Gymnastics

The Canadian Championships in rhythmic gymnastics (RG) competition is a four and a half day (including set-up and take-down) national event held in May each year. On average, the event hosts 140 athletes, 30 coaches, and 20 judges.

The athletes at this event demonstrate their floor work using four apparatus: the rope, the hoop, the ball, the clubs, or the ribbon. For individual competition, the purpose of this event is to declare Canadian Championships in all categories, to initiate the selection process for GCG National Teams, and to identify and assign gymnasts to strategic international competitions. For the group competition, the purpose of this event is to determine the ranking of RG groups across Canada, and to identify and assign groups to strategic international competitions.
