

nuit blanche 2016

Blame it on Rio!

Brookstreet Hotel • December 8, 2016

This is it ... The Nuit Blanche Finale!

The 4th and final edition of the Nuit Blanche sport community holiday party will take place on Thursday, December 8th with a return trip to the Brookstreet Hotel (Ottawa).

This year's theme — A Brazilian Beach Party — will stay true to our #allwhiteallnight theme, but provide plenty of opportunity for wardrobe creativity. In the case of any fashion faux pas, just "Blame it on Rio!"

In addition to the expected fabulous prizes, contests, networking opportunities, great food and courtesy drinks — Blame it on Rio! will pay tribute to Brazil. Those with rhythm will have an edge in the dancing contest and may samba their way home with prizes. For those who dare - face and body painting and photo booth antics!

Join us for a #whitehot celebration as we pay tribute to the 2016 Rio Olympic and Paralympic Games, celebrate the end of the year, and share a memorable night with sport colleagues and friends.

We have room for 300 — purchase your tickets today. See you on the beach!!
